

Tax compliance – international exchange of information agreement individual self-certification form

Tax regulations¹ require the collection of certain information about each account holder's tax residency and citizenship status.

This form is designed to capture the citizenship and residency for tax purposes of the person entitled to the income and assets associated with an account (the beneficial owner). Should you be completing this form on behalf of the beneficial owner, you should complete the form using information relating to their citizenship and residence for tax purposes rather than your own.

Please complete, where applicable, the relevant sections below in relation to all relevant accounts and provide any additional information as may be required. Please be advised that in certain circumstances we may be required to share this information with relevant tax authorities.

If you are a US citizen or resident of the US for tax purposes under US Internal Revenue Service ("IRS") regulations you should also provide a completed, signed and dated IRS Form W-9.

Do not use this form if you are an entity, nominee or other intermediary. Instead you should complete and provide the appropriate Self-Certification form.

If you have any questions about how to complete this form, please contact your tax advisor.
